Passover is a time to commemorate the Exodus from Egypt. As the Hebrews fled from Egypt, they did not have time to bake their bread. Their flight inspired the Passover tradition of eating matzo - unleavened bread. The Exodus story is also a reminder of the importance of freedom and standing up to tyranny. Participating in a Passover Seder is a meaningful way for loved ones to get together and celebrate these values.

Please see our Passover sales for a wide variety of products that make a delicious addition to a Passover Seder or any meal all year round.

Wishing a Happy and Joyous Passover to all who celebrate!
